DISTANCE LEARNING PROGRAMME ON WATER RESOURCES SECTOR IN INDIA FOR SCHOOL TEACHERS
18-19 JUNE 2026

In recognition of the pivotal role that school teachers play as architects of knowledge for students, we are delighted to present a Distance Learning Program on "Water Resources Sector in India" for School Teachers. The program will be delivered through sophisticated Webex platform, ensuring an enriching and immersive learning experience. To embark on this delightful journey, teachers have to self register themselves in the "Google Form" for which link is provided below before 01 June 2026. The Academy will promptly provide the Webex links, essential for participation in the program's enlightening sessions. Computer skills is a pre requisite. Furthermore, participants are encouraged to possess a reliable broadband connection, either at home or within the school premises, to facilitate uninterrupted engagement with the enriching online modules.

Confirmation of nominations will be posted on the NWA website (<https://www.nwapune.gov.in>) under the "Upcoming Events" link by 05 June, 2026. Simultaneously, nominated teachers will receive notification via email. It is essential to note that participants will attend the program from their respective places of duty and are not required to visit NWA for the same.

A dedicated WhatsApp group will be created to provide technical support and facilitate seamless communication, related to the training program. Additionally, post-session assessments in the form of Multiple Choice Questions will be provided to participants after the end of each session, further enhancing the interactive nature of the program. These MCQs, will be mandatory for award of Certificates on completion of the training. The responses to the MCQs must be submitted within the stipulated timeframe provided at the conclusion of each session. Only participants who successfully complete and submit the required MCQs will be conferred with the Digital program completion certificate.

Join us for an inspiring and enriching experience that will leave you equipped with newfound knowledge !
